EVEN KNOBBIE A FAILURE

Rancocas Stable Horses Seem Under Moody Spell of Weather.

Dr. Joe Triumphs in Hindoo Handicap—Pen Rose Displays Great Speed in Mud.

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 1.—Rancocas owner, trainer and rider are all in the doldrums of these moist and muddy days. The organization's good colt Knobbie, which had begun to be a regular—a favorite to win when all others failed—was beaten in the Hindoo Handicap at Aqueduct this afternoon. The Hindoo was a three-horse race, at eight and a half furlongs, and attracted only the Rancocas crack, 117 pounds; Captain Alcock, 107 pounds, and Dr. Joe, 95 pounds. Knobbie had a pound over scale weight, Captain Alcock nine pounds off and Dr. Joe an allowance of thirty-one pounds. In such going weight is heavy and so nicely had scales been adjusted that the trio were lapped at the end of a fighting finish, with the choice of the public reserved. Knobbie third. He and Captain Alcock were almost equal favorites.

It was the Quincy Stable's notion that the one it kept could—that way weighted—beat the one it had sold. The Quincy notion was right. Captain Alcock was second. But both were beaten by the old mud warrior Dr. Joe. The doctor's legs found mud grateful and encouraging and ran to his best form. When the barrier snapped up he started out to keep Knobbie busy. Knobbie led gayly and clear to the turn for the straight run home. There the doctor closed. In seeking the good going of the stretch Sande and Knobbie carried Dr. Joe wide. But the old fellow was in a running mood and, sticking to the Rancocas colt under Callahan's strong hand riding, wore him down and took the lead and held it. Captain Alcock could have won, with better luck, but he was cut off as he closed on the leaders in the stretch. Taken to the side he was running stronger than both Knobbie and Dr. Joe at the finish, where the three were lapped in a spirited battle half lengths apart.

The Regret Handicap divided class with the Hindoo as one of the racing pieces of the day. It was for fillies and mares and six seasoned ones came out for its six and a half furlongs. Pen Rose was timorously chosen to win. She had not a fashionable jockey astride. The lawn figures must have made the old mare laugh. Yeargin took her to the front without delay and she won in surprising time—the early quarters being in 23⅘ and 23⅘—and hilariously. Edwina and Lunetta followed three lengths behind Pen Rose, Edwina's nose just before Lunetta's. Edwina is about ready for better things.

MORE RANCOCAS BAD LUCK.

The Rancocas Stable's bad luck held in another race. It doesn't have much luck nowadays. Its Tom McTaggart seemed to be in the snug harbor of the third race, a mile seller, ridden by non-winning riders. The public supported Tom. He didn't support the public. Rancocas gave him no encouragement. The Marshall Brothers from the West have got new ideas in Rep's head and all riders look alike to him in these days. Rep was a long shot, even after being well backed and, taking the early lead from Jock Scot and Biff Bang, won as he pleased from Tom McTaggart and Silence. Sea Sinner was looked on as a certainty by the group in control and he was treated as one. The Aqueduct mud didn't suit his fancy or young Turner his back. Sea Sinner never got a nodding acquaintance with the lead and was more than six lengths behind Rep at the close. The green riders performed as if they will be mechanics with time and experience.

The opening race, for maiden two-year-olds at five-eighths out of the chute, had gathered twenty-three entries and fourteen took muddy chances. The Oak Ridge Stable's Sea King filly Matches Mary was backed to be favorite and won. She was a good thing and best, though lucky, perhaps, to miss contention from two youngsters which were racing forwardly and were well backed when Promenade cut across and blocked Hillsdale and Furious.

RUNAWAY FOR COPPER DEMON.

The closing race, at two miles for mild winners and maidens, gave the Quincy Stable's Ormondale colt, Copper Demon, a chance to shew his latest mud running ability. He did it convincingly after getting profitable support. The marine named John Paul Jones was the favorite and most stoutly cared for. He was a mere plaything for Copper Demon when master Mooney cut the Quincy colt loose. Top Sergeant and Curfew showed the way for more than half the journey. Copper Demon was kept within striking distance, moved up around the big band and, taking the lead far up the stretch, left the others to talk over his sudden passing and won well in hand by ten lengths from Curfew, which saved ground turning into the straight and always held John Paul Jones safe.

Of course the racing results were perplexing, though two favorites, Matches Mary and Pen Rose, won.

The general conditions were waterlogged, though the noble footing of the Aqueduct course had almost survived the deluge. The going was most uncertain in spots.

There were some 5,500 people out, merely for sports sake. In the mob were folks from every corner of the fair land, filling the gap between their journey and what they had come far to see, the fistic encounter between the best of America and the best of France over on the Jersey side Saturday afternoon.

The past performances of the warriors to meet give mathematical figures about this way:

Dempsey	1,000
Carpentier	765

W. L. Oliver acquired the two-year-old Whirligig from J. E. Widener. This son of Maintenon—Sun Flower bowed a tendon in his last start. Mr. Oliver will send him to his estate at Lakewood to be patched up. Billy has worked wonders with bad-legged horses, Kewessa being a case in point. He recently bought a pair of two-year-olds from H. P. Whitney and intends to build up a stable of young stock to take the place of the superannuated band he recently disposed of.

There were only two claiming races on the program, but considerable action developed. P. S. P. Randolph and J. E. Madden bid upon Rep after he won the third race. G. A. Marshall protected him with an offering of $3,805, which represented a boost of $805 over the colt's entered price. N. L. Byer claimed Tom McTaggart from the Rancocas Stable for $5,000. Fred Taral, representing the Riviera Stable, claimed Matches Mary after the filly had got home first in the opening dash.

Matches Mary scored the first victory of the year for the Oak Ridge Stable. It was followed in the other two-year-old race with another for the horses trained by Louis Garth when Sherando carried the Oak Ridge silks home in the van.

The thirty yearlings bought by James B. Smith and three purchased early in the spring by the Quincy Stable from H. T. Oxnard, arrived at Belmont Park without mishap.

T. J. Harmon in future will train the horses of the Short Grass Stable.

The stewards fined L. T. Bauer $10 for running Silence in colors other than his own in the third race.

Because of a swelling in one of his legs, caused by the effect of the weather upon an old break, jockey B. Kennedy canceled his engagement on Wrecker after riding Phoebus in the first race. Fator substituted for him on Wrecker. Wrecker, by the way, is one of Dr. McCully's wind patients. He was operated upon at the same time as his stablemate, Gladiator.

Although Mat Smart has not despaired of making a steeplechaser of Summer Sigh, he sent the Ormandale gelding to the post in the third race for a dash over the flat, hoping to pick up a bit of feed money with the prospective fencer while his schooling goes on. Mr. Smart is optimistic over the prospects of Summer Sigh as an accomplished timber topper.

A. Hirschberg, who rode the winner of the maiden jockeys' race, is a real lightweight of seventeen years. He is under contract to William Hogan and is a native of Floral Park. Yesterday's was his second mount. He first rode in public astride Thistle Bloom on June 22.

CANADA'S NATIONAL HOLIDAY

Hamilton's Largest Crowd Celebrates Dominion Day—My Dear Wins National Handicap.

HAMILTON, Ont., July 1.—The Canadian national holiday, Dominion Day, was celebrated in a fitting manner at the Hamilton Jockey Club's course this afternoon when the largest attendance in the history of the club crowded every available inch of space. The card, which was an attractive one, featured the National Handicap, one of the annual fixtures. It was a field of good caliber that paraded to the post in this event. Fred Musante's four-year-old daughter of King James—Bettie Landon, My Dear, under a splendid ride by T. Parrington was returned the winner, with Sailing B. and Pimlico finishing second and third respectively.

The start was a good one. Lucky B. and Sailing B. were the ones to set the pace, with the winner closer up than is her usual wont. Claver, on Sailing B., went to the whip, but My Dear was equal to the challenge and she drew away at the end under a drive. Pimlico was badly outrun during the early stages, but Romanelli saved ground and he closed with a determined rush and was beaten but a short nose for second place.

Sweltering heat had a demoralizing effect on the crowd and at least one heat prostration was recorded. The sky was cloudless, with scarcely any breeze blowing. Toronto supplied two train loads of enthusiasts, while Buffalo, not to be outdone, sent over extra cars on the regular trains that stop at the track.

Apart from the running of the feature race the card was an interesting one and served to bring together well matched opponents, with the result that spirited racing was witnessed. Big fields paraded to the post in the majority of the different dashes.

The talent was handed a rather severe blow when Plantoon accounted for the opening dash. This filly was making her first start since last winter at New Orleans and was neglected in the speculation. She led home Grand Daddy and Wraith, two other long-priced horses, while the favorite, Winchester, was fifth, but gaining fast after a poor beginning.

The Dominion Day steeplechase was marked by a sensational spill in which no one was injured. As the field of six was racing for position going to the fifth jump, War Togs fell at the obstacle and Sea Tale fell over him. Before Stretch could guide Free State to one side he was piled in a heap over Sea Tale. The three remaining starters finished the course without mishaps and a spirited battle was produced in which Nonus, under good handling, came from behind and disposed of Lieutenant Seas. Abdul was badly beaten but finished the course.

The successful winning streak enjoyed by the E. F. Whitney Stable was continued today when High C. scored over a large and awkward band of juveniles. She was best and assumed the lead when ready and stood off her opponents in a determined manner. This marked the first part of a double for jockey T. Parrington.

W. M. Cain, following the running of the first race, claimed Greenland from S. A. Clopton. Mr. Cain was represented by the winner Plantoon.

Steeplechase jockey W. Hunt, who was astride King Terry yesterday, suffered a fractured collar bone when his mount fell. He was removed to a local hospital.

Miller Henderson, J. B. Goodman and Elsa Brown shipped from here to Windsor to await the opening at that point. B. Cole has decided to ship to Saratoga from here and will join J. W. Healy going there.

Among the steeplechase brigade that will remain here till the second meeting are Silas Veitch and Charley Douglass. Allan Bullcroft will ship to Montreal.

George McFarlane this morning purchased the contract on jockey L. Aron from Frank Farrar. The terms were private.

Two special horse trains left here following the running of the last race for Fort Erie. The biggest part of the horses that raced here were included in the shipment.

At private sale this morning J. W. Healy, acting for J. Lumsden, sold to C. Reed the two-year-old Al. The latter will be campaigned over the Canadian circuit.

FORT ERIE OPENS TODAY

Niagara Stakes and Lafayette Hotel Purse the Inaugural Day Attractions.

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 1.—Fort Erie opens tomorrow. Never before in the history of the Niagara Racing Association were conditions more auspicious for a wonderful race meeting. Every stall is occupied, or will be when the consignment that raced at Hamilton reaches the track across the border. The class of horses is superior to those of former years. The track is in fine condition and the plant is in thorough readiness to entertain the immense crowd that is expected tomorrow.

The Niagara Stakes, for two-year-olds, is the stellar attraction of the inaugural program, with the Lafayette Hotel Purse sharing interest. Ten good young racers will clash in the stake feature and a fine contest is looked for. Second Thoughts is the overnight favorite, but there are several others, such as Corenzio, Caretaker, Ogarite, Johnny Dundee and Captain Scott that will not lack admirers.

The overnight races filled well, large fields being named in in all of them and some excellent sport seems in prospect for the large crowd of local race followers, who are anxiously awaiting the bugle call for the first of the 1921 meetings at the popular course across the line.

The management calls attention to the law recently passed in Canada which makes it a criminal offense to wager on horse races other than through the mutuel machines. This means that anyone caught making handbook will be arrested and taken to Welland for trial. Seven provincial policemen will be sent from Welland to see that the law is enforced.

As during the meetings last year, separate machines for betting will be in operation at Fort Erie. There will be machines for American money and machines for Canadian money, and those who bet in American money will be paid off in United States currency. Those who wager with Canadian money, and win, will be paid off in Canadian money. This is a much appreciated feature, as it does away with any confusion attending on changing the money at the different rates of exchange.

POST POSITIONS AND RIDERS TODAY

LATONIA, Ky., July 1.—The shortage of good riders here, partially due to suspensions for rough riding, is responsible for the failure to name some riders of the intended starters in the rich Cincinnati Trophy this afternoon. Those for whom riders have been secured and their post positions are:

1—†Riga.
2—‡Fair Phantom (T. Nolan).
3—Granite Ware (T. Murray).
4—§Startle.
5—Quince Garden.
6—§Washington (L. Lyke).
7—†Bonus.
8—‡Miss Joy (Lunsford).
9—‡Rockminister (W. Lilley).
10—Dream of Allah (Butwell).
11—Red Leaf.

†H. P. Whitney entry; ‡Montfort Jones entry; §H. H. Hewitt entry.

The Latonia Oaks gives every promise of being a stirring contest and while the P. A. Clark pair are given preference it by no means indicates a walkover for them. But for the recent lameness of Bit of White she would have enjoyed at least equal popularity with the Clark pair. She still has a host of friends and it will cause no surprise if she duplicates Busy Signal's success over Cleopatra in the same race last year.

The announced riders and post positions follow:

1—†Flambette.
2—Aphie Dear.
3—†Nancy Lee (McAtee).
4—Fallacy (T. Nolan).
5—Bit of White (Lyke).
†P. A. Clark entry.

MARSHALL FIELD A WINNING OWNER

LONDON, England, July 1.—The Fulbourne Stakes, for two-year-old colts and fillies, was run at Newmarket today and was won by Marshall Field's Golden Corn. There were thirteen starters. Donoghue rode the winner, which won by six lengths.

Tetratema, a hot favorite, won the July Cup easily.

Sir H. Cunliffe-Owen's four-year-old Orpheus, carrying 142 pounds, won the Prince of Wales Stakes by a length and a half. Seven others, which were in receipt of from twelve to thirty pounds from the winner, also ran.

King George won the Princess Stakes, while Spring Buck and Blue Dun accounted for the Ellerslie Stakes, winning easily by three lengths.

The sale of yearlings was continued today. Lord Derby purchased a filly by Bridge of Earn—Addenda, for $20,000. Another filly by Friar Marcus—Half Slice, went to Sir Cunliffe for $8,500. Mr. Gilpin secured a filly by Sunstar—Herb of Grace for $12,000, and a colt by Swynford—Pretty Polly brought $5,250.

Altogether seventy-nine colts were sold at an average price of $2,625, while seventy-four fillies brought an average of $3,315.

These prices do not compare favorably with those obtained at the first July sales in 1920, when seventy-eight colts averaged $3,645 and sixty-seven fillies averaged $3,512.

DELORIMIER PARK RACING TODAY

MONTREAL, Que., July 1.—It will not be for lack of horses if the meeting of the Montreal Driving Club, which opens at Delorimier Park tomorrow, is not the most successful ever held at this course. There are over six hundred horses quartered at this track and other local courses ready to run. As an indication that large fields will be the rule, there were forty-one entries made to the first race for tomorrow.

Jockey E. Smith, who received such a bad fall at Conneaut Lake, Pa., has been here for several days galloping horses. He has fully recovered from his injuries and will resume riding at this meeting.

E. E. Major is a recent arrival from Connaught Park, Ottawa, with a string of nine head, including the two-year-old Desperation, which he purchased from the Pelican Stable; also Sherman A., Mack Garner, Tough and Tight, which he bought at private sale from B. A. Jones. The latter has decided not to race any horses this summer.

AN ACCIDENT AT LATONIA

Four Horses and Riders Go Down in a Heap.

None Seriously Hurt—The Porter Wins in High Class Form—Fair Phantom's Speed.

LATONIA, Ky., July 1.—Edward B. McLean's sturdy The Porter, six-year-old son of Sweep—Ballet Girl, made his introductory race under silks for the year a notable one by scoring an impressive victory in the $2,000 mile handicap in the good time of 1:37⅘, the fastest over the track at this meeting. Following him closest came Woodtrap, with Brookholt in third place and Marjorie Hynes and La Rablee following. The Porter, well ridden by Butwell, indulged Woodtrap with the lead in the early running, but after going a half mile he began moving up with great strides and, finding a clear path next to the inner rail just before reaching the three-eighths post, dashed into the lead with a rush and once in command held the race easily safe. Woodtrap, ridden by D. Connelly, who changed his mind about retiring until next fall, showed great speed in pacemaking under an excellent ride and held Brookholt safe through the last eighth. Marjorie Hynes gave up the struggle early and the last eighth found her quitting. La Rablee, of which much was expected, was in a sulking mood and followed far back all the way.

What had the appearance of a bad accident came with the running of the third race, in which four of the nine starters fell in a heap in the last eighth of the mile and a sixteenth. The sufferers were The Virginian, Hondo, Loyalist and Harold K., ridden respectively by T. Murray, W. Heinisch, T. Nolan and J. McCoy. Jockeys and horses were in a bad tangle and when it was unraveled the injured were quickly rushed to the track emergency hospital. All the boys, excepting McCoy, were unconscious, but revived quickly under medical administration. Murray showed most injury under the superficial examination made and, after first aid, was hurried to a hospital in Covington. His gravest bruises are about the back, but is not deemed serious. Heinisch may develope a broken rib as his chief hurt, besides a number of bruises, and T. Nolan escaped with a bad shaking up. McCoy was unscathed. The stewards immediately began an investigation as to the responsibility for the fall, but up to the last race were unable to determine positively who caused it. Before being called into the stand jockey Francis voluntarily admitted that he indirectly caused it, but that it was due to jockey Josiah, who bored in on him with Rapid Stride, Josiah disclaiming any knowledge of so doing. Jockey Lilley, who rode Fifi II. in the race, claimed to have seen The Virginian cross his legs and stumble before falling and was of the opinion this caused the fall.

JOCKEY FRANCES NOT TO BLAME.

The stewards are of the opinion that Francis' mount caused the accident, but are not convinced the jockey was wholly responsible for the accident. They will look further into the matter before taking any action. The purse fell to Jake Feld, paying odds of better than 114 to 1, the second longest winner of the meeting. Jake Feld was out clear when the others went down and probably would have won any way, although The Virginian was coming like a flash just before he fell.

The second shortest priced winner of the meeting came in the sixth race, with Fair Phantom's victory over some fairly useful two-year-old fillies, including Wayward Lady and Helen Rogers. Fair Phantom ran as if much the best and was under stout restraint all through the stretch. Speculation was confined to the three placed ones in the race and for a time it appeared as if the association would have to make good a big deficit to pay the customary five cents on each dollar, but it only called for a small amount to make up the deficiency.

Small fields of evenly matched starters were factors for good sport in a majority of the dashes. Fast time was again the rule, intense heat and a perfect track making an ideal combination in this respect.

The best finish came with the running of the second race when Banker Brown and Sir Hugh measured strides for almost the entire length of the stretch and terminated their struggle heads apart, the Bradley youngster just lasting under a terrific drive.

Sir Lawnfal upset careful calculations when he won the opener with ease from Runzaf with John S. Reardon just lasting for third place. The latter was an overwhelming favorite, but is, in his present condition, merely a shadow of his two-year-old form.

With three favorites failing in succession the talent sought to recoup with Rapid Day, but the best he could do was to land in third place, although he would have been second but for swerving badly in the last eighth.

The last race fell to Brotherly Love, which partially made amends to his backers for his failure in two preceding races. Connelly guided him this afternoon and he rode him in perfect style. Candle Light and Young Adam fought it out for the minor portions of the purse.

There was a claim in the final race for one of the starters, by L. Erb, but it is being held up on account of Erb's failure to register his representative, Lothair, as his property. Lothair was claimed by Erb from his last previous race.

RING WINS MATCH RACE AT RENO

The black mare Ring, a daughter of Leonid and Hands Around, won the title to queen of the turf in the West by defeating Dr. Corbett in a special sweepstakes, at Reno, Saturday, June 25, at four and a half furlongs, each carrying 115 pounds. Ring won easily in :53⅘, clipping two-fifths seconds from the track record made by Apache Kid six years ago.

Time, 59⅘. Track muddy.

Winner—Ch. f, by Sea King—Helen Marie, by Stalwart (trained by L. W. Garth; bred by Mr. John E. Madden).

Went to post at 2:18. At post 3 minutes. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. MATCHES MARY, close up from the start, saved ground when entering the stretch and, finishing fast under a vigorous ride, wore ZENNOTTA down and won in the last stride. ZENNOTTA set a fast pace to the elbow and showed excellent speed, but could not withstand the winner's challenge. PROMENADE was a forward contender throughout and held on gamely in the stretch drive. THISTLEBLOOM was forced wide when entering the stretch. LAST EFFORT closed a big gap. HILLSDALE and FURIOUS were forced to pull up when PROMENADE swerved.

Scratched—55322²Sweepy, 108; 55322 Grass Tree, 106; 55322 Radical, 122; 55322 Fred Kinney, 112; 55264 Maggie Murphy, 103; 55228 Last Girl, 107; 55289 Valentine d'Or, 109; 55322 Citation, 109; Fly Ball, 112.

Time, 23⅗, 47, 1:12⅖, 1:19. Track muddy.

Winner—B. m, by Sweep—Hanrose, by Hanover (trained by D. Kearney; bred by Mr. William E. Randolph).

Went to post at 2:44. At post 6 minutes. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. PEN ROSE set a terrific pace in the going and, having her opponents safe after going a half mile, won in a canter. EDWINA began slowly, but gradually improved her position on the outside and outstayed LUNETTA for second place. The latter was under slight restraint in the early running and passed VISTA in the stretch, but tired in the final strides. VISTA ran a good race, but tired badly in the last eighth. BALLET DANCER II. finished resolutely. ELECTED II. raced poorly.

Overweights—Ballet Dancer II., 4 pounds.

Time, 24⅕, 48⅗, 1:14, 1:40⅘. Track muddy.

Winner—B. c, by Picton—Enchantress II., by Collar (trained by L. F. Marshall; bred by Kentucky Stable).

Went to post at 3:11. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. REP, ridden best, raced into a good lead on the backstretch and gamely maintained his advantage for the remainder of the race. TOM McTAGGART was hard ridden for the entire race and, finishing gamely, outstayed SILENCE. The latter raced forwardly and finished close up. JOCK SCOT and SEA SINNER were weakly ridden. The winner, entered for $3,000, was bid up to $3,805 and bought in.

Scratched—55284²Duc de Morny, 105.

Overweights—Tufter, 3 pounds.

Winner—Br. h, by King James—Adelinette, by Melton (trained by F. C. Frisbie; bred by Mr. Henry T. Oxnard).

Went to post at 3:35. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. DR. JOE, after racing in closest pursuit of the leader, moved up steadily when entering the stretch, where he was forced wide by KNOBBIE, responded gamely to a vigorous hand ride and, heading the leader, held on resolutely at the end. CAPTAIN ALCOCK made a game effort to come around the leaders in the stretch, but was forced back, then came to the inside in the last quarter and was going strongest of all in the closing strides. KNOBBIE set a fast pace and led for nearly a mile, but tired under his weight when called on for a final effort.

Scratched—55147³John Paul Jones, 95.

Time, 59⅗. Track muddy.

Winner—Ch. f, by Sea King—Elizabeth D. R., by Star Shoot (trained by L. W. Garth; bred by Mr. John E. Madden).

Went to post at 4:01. At post 2 minutes. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. SHERANDO secured a clear course on the outside and, gradually improving her position, wore EMOTION down and headed her in the last strides. EMOTION, a forward contender throughout, swerved across the track, causing BALANCE and LUCKY BUTTON to pull up, then took the lead, but could not withstand the winner's challenge. MARY PATRICIA closed a big gap and ran an excellent race. ULTIMATA was forced out on the last turn. BALANCE had no chance after meeting the interference. LUCKY BUTTON suffered most from the early interference.

Scratched—(55289)Leghorn, 120; 55145 Mission Bells, 115; 55289 Bellatrix, 108.

Overweights—Ultimata, 1 pound; Simpatica, 1½; Collinga, 1½; Theo, 3.

Winner—Br. c, by Helmet—Vaila, by Fariman (trained by J. H. Thompson; bred by Mr. Edward R. Bradley).

Went to post at 2:34. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. BANKER BROWN, away well and showing the most speed, raced into the lead at once and, setting the pace fast, outstayed SIR HUGH in a game finish. The latter raced in closest pursuit and also stood the final drive gamely. SADDLE AND BOOTS raced forwardly all the way and finished resolutely. BLOSSOM HOUSE finished well. VITAMIN was always outrun.

Overweights—Saddle and Boots, 1 pound.

Winner—B. g, by St. Volma—Bonetto, by Masetto (trained by T. F. Devereaux; bred by Mr. J. S. Mullins).

Went to post at 3:04. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. JAKE FELD closed up ground rapidly and, racing into the lead in the stretch, won in a canter. RAPID STRIDE raced into a clear lead, but was tiring fast at the end. FIFI II. set the pace briefly and came again near the end after dropping back in the first three-quarters. MELVIN, under an incompetent ride, was all over the track and caused THE VIRGINIAN to fall in the stretch. JETSAM was eased up in the last eighth. HONDO was going well when he fell over THE VIRGINIAN. LOYALIST and HAROLD K. also could not avoid prostrate horses and went down.

Scratched—55119 Louie Lou, 107; 55293 Captain Tom, 112.

Winner—Ch. g, by Eyebrow—Rumpoint, by Masetto (trained by E. Trotter; bred by Mr. C. H. Carter).

Went to post at 3:34. At post 6 minutes. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. REDMON began fast, showed high speed and, setting a fast pace under a good ride, won under restraint. BOTHERATION began slowly, but came fast through the stretch and wore RAPID DAY down for second place in the last seventy yards. RAPID DAY showed much speed and followed REDMON closely, but swerved badly in the last sixteenth, which cost him second place. MISSED THE TIME ran well. MABEL G. tired after going a fast half mile.

Overweights—Botheration, 2 pounds; Missed the Time, 2½; Ben Valet, 3½.

Winner—B. h, by Sweep—Ballet Girl, by St. Leonards (trained by J. F. Schorr; bred by Mr. David Stevenson).

Went to post at 4:11. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won handily; second and third driving. THE PORTER, after being restrained in the early running, raced into the lead with a rush while saving ground just before reaching the stretch and held the others safe through the last eighth. WOODTRAP recovered his speed suddenly and, under a good ride, showed the most speed to the stretch and held on gamely in the final drive. BROOKHOLT ran a good race. MARJORIE HYNES was outrun and gave it up in the last quarter. LA RABLEE was always far back.

$100 SPECIAL
WINS AGAIN!

THIS HORSE WAS FILED FOUR DAYS IN ADVANCE WITH THIS PUBLICATION—East and West. Just another demonstration for the doubting Thomases. Throw away youd dope books. Buying and purveying information is, with us, a BUSINESS. We pay tops for our information. In all, we have had SEVEN $100 GUARANTEED SPECIALS—FIVE have won; one second and one finished out of the money.

NEXT $100 SPECIAL GOES WEDNESDAY

OUR NEXT SPECIAL GOES WEDNESDAY, July 6. As USUAL, the price is $100, and if it doesn't win—not run second or third—your subscription is refunded. This horse, specially prepared for this race, is, we believe, POSITIVELY the best ever handled by us.

SPECIAL—In order to circumvent "leaks" and pilferers, we request that you include your 'phone number. We prepay all charges. No propositions accepted.
